

"ROOSEVELTISM."

The Plain People Will Tire of It When They Tire of Honesty and Courage—Ex-Congressman Wise Prods the Fulminators.

BY J. V. VAN EATON.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Republican lawyers are showing a readiness to answer the criticisms against the President and his administration which have been advanced by the members of the Constitutional Club, composed almost wholly of Democrats. When Hon. John S. Wise, former Congressman from Virginia, was asked his views on the situation and the attacks of the Constitutional Club, he replied as follows:

"I am for Roosevelt, and all this talk of danger to the Constitution from his strong personality and views does not alarm me in the least. The formation of the Constitutional Club ought not to disturb any Republican who knows its personnel. They are many of them fine men, but for the most part Democrats, and all of them jealous doctrinaires of strict construction. There is nothing new in their doctrines. Nothing new in their 'viewing with alarm' supposed encroachments upon constitutional safeguards. That class has existed from the days of Aaron Burr and Thomas Jefferson, and whether they know it or not, they are simply Democrats whose political pabulum is jealousy of a vigorous, sensible, Federalist policy.

"They might construct warnings, and alarm signals, and acholastic bulls against usurpation of Federal powers from now until election day, and they cannot say anything new, or express it any better, than those who fulminated against Old Hickory, when he answered the threat of nullification by the toast 'The Federal Union, it must be preserved,' and when he removed the deposits. He was called a tyrant and a despot, and the one-man power was viewed with alarm by a very respectable class of critics and constitutional theorists and half-splitters, until one would have expected to see Jackson swallow the Constitution and proclaim himself dictator. Now, who believed it all, outside this coterie of alarmists? Nobody at all.

NOT ROPES OF SAND.

"Jackson came out of the fiery furnace of their scholarly criticisms more beloved and respected by the masses of the people than any man who has lived since, unless it be Lincoln. He had no ulterior purpose of over-riding the Constitution; but he was a positive and vigorous man himself, and did not look upon the Federal compact as a rope of sand, or the Federal Constitution as a limited power of attorney. He believed both had inherent vigor sufficient to maintain themselves against assault, and, if necessary, to hit back hard enough to let assailants understand that they were not fighting a possum punch-bag. And the people admired his grit and his virility, and did not mistake them for signs of a design against real constitutional liberty. For the same reasons they trusted Lincoln, who, in three weeks, found out where the government posessed power to preserve itself and enforce its authority, while Buchanan had nearly run himself into senile dementia of doubts.

"For the same reason, thousands and hundreds of thousands of people who have never supported Grover Cleveland respect him and admire him for his honesty and his courage.

ALSO "TEDDY."

"For the same reason, Roosevelt has a remarkable hold on the masses, and when a little group of political empirics and egotists meet and try to hang the tag of dangerous on Roosevelt, their manifestoes are about as powerful as the resolutions of the 'Seven Tailors of Tooley Street.'

"Roosevelt's life stands up to contradict their theories that he is undemocratic or unprincipled. The people judge him by his life, and not by the warped analysis of a self-complacent coterie of dreamers.

THE REAL "OPEN BOOK."

"They have seen enough of him now as youth, and cowboy, and sportsman, and naval secretary, and police commissioner, and soldier and Governor, and President, to think themselves fair judges of his life, and not by the warped analysis of a self-complacent coterie of dreamers. They have seen enough of him now as youth, and cowboy, and sportsman, and naval secretary, and police commissioner, and soldier and Governor, and President, to think themselves fair judges of his life, and not by the warped analysis of a self-complacent coterie of dreamers.

TOO POPULAR TO SUPPRESS.

PLURALITY WILL BE LARGE.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

MONTREAL, Sept. 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ex-Secretary Elihu Root passed through here today on his way to Newfoundland, where he will spend two weeks hunting. Root said that there was no doubt in his mind that President Roosevelt would be elected by a plurality exceeding that of McKinley four years ago.

"Roosevelt is popular personally, despite the efforts of the Democratic press to stimulate hostile feeling," added the ex-Secretary, "and the Republican party, because of the clean, businesslike administration of the late President Lincoln, who, in three weeks, found out where the government pos-

House sanitation, including the chemistry of house cleaning, also will be taken up. The classes in sewing will be taught how to patch, to make buttonholes, to sew on buttons, to darn and to hemstitch. Then they will be given instructions in cutting and making garments.

Finally they will be told how to shop—how to select suitable material and to calculate the amounts necessary.

BLOODY WORK OF THE CRUEL TURK.

AMERICAN CONSUL REPORTS ON RECENT MASSACRES.

Number of Armenians Killed and Dead from Exposure and Hunger Estimated at Three Thousand Five Hundred in "Tranquil and Peaceful" District of Sassun.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The American Consul at Harput has reported to the State Department that he has visited Bitlis and is now in Mossul.

The Consul states that the district of Sassun is tranquil and peaceful and the strategic points are garrisoned by infantry detachments and permanent barracks erected.

The survivors of the massacre are in a destitute condition, but are attempting to rebuild their burned villages with a little government aid. The consular corps at Bitlis estimates the number massacred and dead from exposure and hunger, etc., at 3,500. The American colony at Bitlis appears to be in no present or prospective danger.

The Mossul district insurgents have adopted a guerrilla form of warfare. They demand certain reforms which concern chiefly matters of local administration and economic questions not involving the integrity of the empire.

A number of villages have been plundered and burned and many persons killed and maltreated and another massacre is expected by the Armenian population, which is in destitute circumstances. About 15,000 have lost everything and are starving, many being ill and wounded.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT PARKER. MR. BELL ASKS FAVOR FOR HIM.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The Bureau of Navigation today received a request from Representative Bell of the Second Congress District of California for the enlistment in the navy and assignment to the battleship Ohio of a constituent of his named Theodore Roosevelt Parker.

The applicant, it appears, really bears the name of Theodore Roosevelt Parker, and it was not recently assumed, as shown by the fact that the record of the Marine Corps discloses his enlistment under that name at Seattle, July 12, 1901.

Parker was born in San Francisco and was a machinist when he enlisted in the Marine Corps. His father bore the same name. It is said that the family is a branch of an old Pennsylvania family of Roosevelts, not connected in any way with the President.

Representative Bell's request will be granted.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

Warship Plans Approved.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The board of construction has finally approved the plans and specifications for the armored cruisers North Carolina and Montana, and the battleship New Hampshire, which were authorized by the last Congress, and as soon as they have been approved by Secretary Morton they will be published. The armored cruisers, which are in the rear arrangements, follow closely the lines of the Tennessee class, and the New Hampshire of the Louisiana class.

Building of Collies.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Formal announcement is made at the Navy Department that the collies authorized for the Marine Corps will be built, one at the navy yard, New York, and the other at the navy yard, Mare Island.

TWO THOUSAND KILLED.

Terrible Loss of Life in Battle Between Government Forces and Paraguayan Revolutionaries.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Two thousand men were killed and four thousand wounded in the recent battle between the Paraguayan government forces and the revolutionaries, according to a Herald special from Buenos Ayres, Argentina.

Gen. Vasquez, Minister of War, who led the government troops, is asserted to have been defeated and driven back, abandoning arms and munitions.

In a previous battle the revolutionaries were driven back, and Gen. Vasquez, while pressing his victory, was suddenly met by a surprise resistance. The revolutionaries were scattered and engaged the government troops. For three days the battle raged with terrible losses on both sides. Gradually the rebels broke Vasquez back, and, according to last reports, the Minister of War was in full retreat.

Reports from Paraguay state that the revolutionaries there are holding their own.

OTHER SIDES STORY.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.

BUENOS AYRES, Sept. 7.—The report from Uruguay of the defeat of Gen. Vasquez, Minister of War, in the recent battle between the Paraguayan government forces and the revolutionaries, was published only in Buenos Ayres newspapers favoring the revolution in Uruguay. The Argentine press, however, published an official dispatch received by President Ordaz of Uruguay from Gen. Vasquez, dated Monday.

"On joining the northern division of the army we attacked the revolutionary forces, which were well armed and equipped with modern artillery. Notwithstanding this, we forced them, after severe fighting, to retire into Brazilian territory. Added to this splendid triumph, the northern division succeeded in placing out of action Gen. Saravia and other rebel leaders, leaving in our camp alone 130 dead. I am informed that the rebels estimate their losses at 1200. The government casualties were: Officers, 11 killed, 13 wounded; men, 83 killed, 245 wounded; 64 missing."

RISK MEN TO DISLODGE JAPS.

RUSSIANS AT PORT ARTHUR BADLY NEED SOME POSITIONS.

Latest Reports from beleaguered Stronghold Tell of Ebb and Flow of Fighting There—Unroofed Chinese Houses Make Excellent Redoubts for Besiegers.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.

CHEFOO, Sept. 7, 10:30 p.m.—[By Asiatic Cable.] It is now apparent that the heavy fighting reported by numerous Chinese refugees as having occurred before Port Arthur between August 27 and 31 occurred chiefly on the first two days mentioned, the Japanese thereafter directing their efforts almost entirely to holding the positions they had obtained.

That these positions were of considerable importance is evidenced by the fact that the Russians risked the lives of valuable men in open fighting in their efforts to dislodge the Japanese from them. As has been previously reported in these dispatches, the Japanese troops retired from nearly all points on the morning of August 31.

The Novikoff of August 31 devotes considerable space to an account of a small Russian reconnaissance which started from Palungshan and reached a point near Shushiyen without encountering any Japanese. Returning to their own lines on the night of the 29th, this party came upon a trench in an open field garrisoned by a solitary Japanese soldier, who abandoned his rifle and fled upon seeing the Russians.

The Russians captured some trenching tools of the Japanese, who remained in force behind a barrier thrown across the Mandarin road and returned swiftly to the fortress. Another reconnaissance party found the Japanese vanguard trenches at Shushiyen to be unoccupied. The Russians remained in the trenches awhile and presently discovered a company of Japanese troops. There was an exchange of rifle fire, during which a number of the Japanese were killed, and the remainder retired.

INDISTINCT FIRING HEARD.

Firing was heard here indistinctly this evening. A steamship which passed Port Arthur last night reports that she heard no firing from the Russian stronghold.

A copy of the Port Arthur Novikoff, dated August 31, publishes details of the incidents of the fighting of August 29 and 30 on the Russian east flank.

On the evening of the 29th, the Japanese opened a heavy fire from Fort No. 3 and other points, directing their fire chiefly at the Russian positions on a hill called Small Eagle's Nest.

At Shushiyen, the Japanese removed the roofs from a number of Chinese houses, strongly constructed of mud and stone, and converted them into excellent redoubts.

At 9 o'clock of the evening of the 29th, a Russian regiment made a sudden onslaught of the Japanese trenches and the point of the bayonet was used. The Japanese were forced back to redoubt No. 2. The Russians were unable to proceed farther than this redoubt because of the fierce fire poured in upon them by the Japanese. According to the Novikoff, the Russian trenches were not far from the Japanese trenches, and the Russian fire was greatly strengthened during the previous night. On the east flank the remainder of the night of the 29th was quiet. Nothing occurred on the west flank during the night of the 29th.

On the morning of August 30, Russian artillery dispersed a small body of Japanese cavalry.

A Japanese torpedo boat recently fired a shot at Fort No. 2, but was found by searchlights and repulsed by Russian batteries. She appeared to be somewhat damaged.

SAILING NOT POSTPONED.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 7.—The report that the sailing of the Baltic squadron has been postponed until November is officially denied, as is also the rumor that several of the ships composing it developed defects. The squadron will sail for Libau Sunday. Exactly when it will sail thence is not known.

Although the report that Rear-Admiral Oukromsky, in command of the Russian fleet at Port Arthur, is to be court-martialed is untrue, the Admiral has decided to recall him, probably placing Capt. Wirin of the cruiser Bayan in command. It has been realized all along that Oukromsky lacked the requirements of a commander of a fleet under such difficulties, but owing to the impossibility of sending a flag officer to Port Arthur he was allowed to remain in command. The Admiral is greatly dissatisfied with his action in returning to Port Arthur August 10 in the face of the order of the late Admiral Witthoft not to do so and this led to the decision to supplant him.

CARLOADS OF WOUNDED.

ON THE ROAD TO MUKDEN.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Daily Mail's Kungangse correspondent, cabling under date of September 7, says:

"Rail cars at the rate of eighty a day, loaded with wounded, are passing through this station for Mukden. The shrapnel injuries are frightful and a majority of the men succumb on the journey to the hospital."

"Correspondents arriving here keenly resent the treatment by the Japanese and declare that they are nothing of the war. They are treated as though they were spies, while native correspondents are permitted to see the fighting and telegraph freely."

The Daily Mail's Kungangse correspondent says that Rear-Admiral Uru has been ordered to remain outside Shanghai with his squadron until Port Arthur falls.

A correspondent of the Daily Mail with Gen. Kuraki, telegraphing August 27, describing the battle of Anging, says:

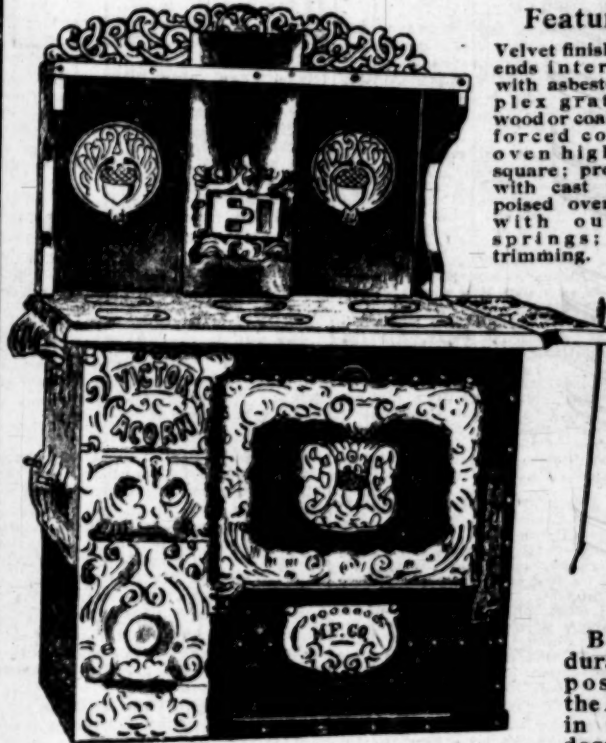

"The Russian position was exceedingly strong. On the left, was a long line of mountain ridges, and gradually shelving down on the front and right were straight slopes steeply descending for 600 feet, then bending at sharper angles for several hundred feet. The slopes were planted in maize, millet and potatoes. The movements of the Japanese were greatly hampered by the configuration of the country, the unceasing succession of mountains, which were almost pathless, making it impossible for them to bring forward their field guns, and mountain artillery therefore was used.

"After opening with shrapnel the Japanese infantry advanced in arch-shaped formation, massing at every convenient point of shelter, and reaching the foot of the mountain through the angle of the slope affording protection. From a hill opposite I saw the steady and persistent move forward, now by two and the Russian trenches caused the Russian fire momentarily to waver. Then a heavy fusillade began. The Japanese tore off their coats in order to facilitate their movements, thus presenting splendid white marks."

BATTERIES WORKING RUIN.

The gunners experienced difficulty at first in getting the range. Soon, however, smoke and flame showed where the opposing batteries were working ruin. The Japanese advanced on the right, below the Russian front, concealing themselves in the corn. Their fire was directed at the Russian trenches, causing the Russian fire momentarily to waver. Then a heavy fusillade began. The Japanese tore off their coats in order to facilitate their movements, thus presenting splendid white marks."

"Some Japanese crept around and, wriggling through the corn, burst upon the Russian trenches. There was a bloody fight. Then, as though by magic, white flags with blood-red centers appeared all up the mountain sides. On the summit stood men waving white flags. The Russian soldiers and standard bearers were tearing up the slopes."

"The Japanese now opened fire upon the Russians descending the opposite slopes, while the Russian artillery turned savagely on the heights where the Russians had been ousted. The Japanese losses were very heavy. The Russian artillery covered the retreat. Both armies remained in touch during the afternoon. A heavy thunderstorm ensued, during which the artillery of our left wing attacked Daidetsu."

"There was little shelter that night for the wounded, and all lay, drenched to the skin, in the mud. The pitiless rain continued until nearly midnight. When the fog lifted at 3:30 in the afternoon the Russians were observed in full retreat, pouring toward the bridge over the River Jang."

Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky, a Mild and Able Man, New Russian Interior Minister.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 7.—(Atlantic Cable.) The Associated Press learns from high authority that Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky has been selected to succeed the late M. Von Plehve as Minister of the Interior. The Emperor summoned Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky, who is now governor-general of Vilna, and had a long interview with him at Peterhof today.

The Prince is a military officer with the rank of general. Formerly, he was governor of Penza and Ekaterinburg and occupied the post of chief of the gendarmes and assistant minister of the interior under the late M. Sipiagin.

He is forty-seven years old and is credited an able man. He has not identified with harsh measures and his appointment will probably be hailed as the inauguration of a mild regime.

GRAY HEARS ARGUMENTS.

OPERATORS' RIGHT TO COLLECT.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7.—Judge Gray, who was chairman of the Anthracite Coal Commission, today, as usual, heard argument by the members of the right of operators to collect money from employers, with which to employ check workmen and docking bosses as a legal assignment of the amount made by the employers.

STRIKERS IN A QUANDARY.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] His advice spurned by the United Trades Board, President Donnelly abdicated the stock-yard strike leadership today. Fanning the rebellion of socialism to his coat, he took his place in the ranks and yielded the place as commander to John Fitzpatrick. Donnelly's request that the rejected terms of surrender be submitted to the unions was denied by the packing trades leaders at a conference.

A few minutes later the butchers' president appeared in the lobby of the new hotel in his new colors. He transacted great excitement by drawing from his pocket a red button of Socialism. He boldly pinned this to the lapel of his coat. Slapping the button with his hand Donnelly called attention to the emblem of Socialism and said: "We will win this strike and a conference."

Nevertheless, the prevailing opinion is that at least 10,000 Chicago strikers before the end of the week will follow the lead of the retail butchers and return to work since Tuesday. Donnelly hereafter will fight in the ranks and serve merely as an adviser.

STRIKERS IN A QUANDARY.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—The strikers have voted to continue the stock yards struggle until better terms can be secured, their leaders tonight are in a quandary as to what the next move should be.

When the result of the vote of the men, defeating the proposition to return to work, was announced today, it was stated by the union officials that a second ballot would be ordered at once. Shortly after the announcement was made, however, the plan was abandoned, and efforts were begun to secure another conference with the packers. In this case the strikers were unsuccessful, and then a second announcement was made that the order issued last week placing all men on the unfair list would go into effect tonight.

Waste arrangements were being made to put this order into effect. It was understood that the order would be issued at 11 o'clock tonight, and that it would be impossible to put the manifesto into effect tonight, as the allied trades conference board would not be able to convene for a meeting of its members until tomorrow. It was then stated that the central organization would meet tomorrow at 11 o'clock to consider the matter.

Following the announcement that the order had been issued, the strikers' meeting, attended by representatives of all the packers, was held at the office of the National Packing Association. The meeting was held in the afternoon, and the strikers' meeting is not known, but after the meeting it was stated by one of the labor leaders that no opportunity would be given the labor leaders to present a proposition embracing arbitration as being planned by the strikers.

During Mr. Warriner's presentation of the operators' position Judge Gray interrupted several times with interruptions. The judge desired to know whether the operators collected from the miners' wages to pay off any one connected with the mines. Judge Gray cited as an example the physicians and blacksmiths. Warriner contended that the pay of the doctor was collected by the operators on assignment made by the miners and that they also collected, when requested, by legal assignment, payment for clerical men. The miners insisted that their pay was collected without an assignment, and whether the miners had made use of the blacksmith or not.

Mr. Nichols, representing the miners, cited the case of the Squeehanna Coal Company, near Hazleton, and said miners were docked for the pay of the blacksmith when they did not use his services. Nichols said the company made the deduction on the amount of coal mined by miners.

Judge Gray did not announce when a decision would be rendered.

FAIL TO RESPOND TO CALL.

NON-UNION MINERS SATISFIED.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

TRINIDAD (Colo.) Sept. 7.—It was learned tonight at the headquarters of the union coal miners here that only 300 non-union men had responded to the call of President Howells of District No. 15, United Mine Workers of America, for all non-union employees

in District No. 15 to quit work today and join the men who have been on a strike since last November.

The strike since November at headquarters that a large number of men had left their work at Hastings Victor Fuel

Company and the Tobacco Colorado

Fuel and Iron Company's camp, but that the guards employed by the coal companies refused to let the men leave the camp. The superintendent, Coller of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company denies this and declares that the men only have responded to the call,

and that so far as their respective companies are concerned, the call might as well never have been made.

SWEEP BY A
FATAL FIRE.Second Great Conflagration Visits Bakersfield.Three Lives Lost and Many Houses in Ruins.Awful Price of Drunkard's Carelessness.

BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 7.—[Exclusive

Dispatch.] For the second time in the history of the city, Bakersfield was visited this afternoon by a conflagration which threatened the entire municipality with destruction. Three entire blocks of the city are in ruins tonight. Two men are dead and a third is dying. The financial loss may reach a quarter of a million dollars, with insurance amounting to about $100,000.

The city is in total darkness, and what is more, it is practically helpless to protect itself from another fire, for nearly all the fire-fighting apparatus was destroyed. The fact that Bakers-field exists tonight is due to the absence of wind this afternoon. Had there been a stiff wind, no human agency could have stopped the progress of the flames, and the entire city must have been destroyed.

The fire originated at 2:10 o'clock this afternoon in the engine house of the fire department. The man whose drunken spree was the cause of it paid

the penalty of his life for his careles-ness. His charred body being found in the ruins of the engine house after the fire had burned itself out.

William Silver, a brick mason, who was well-known throughout the city,

went into the engine house to sleep off

the effects of a spree. He was smoking when last seen, and it is supposed he went to sleep on a pile of hay, dropped his lighted cigar, and that caused the fire.

The engine house was a frame shack and burned like dry tinder. It was surrounded on all sides by frame shacks—veritable fire traps—and in a few seconds these were all ablaze. The flames spread north on K street to Twentieth and Nineteenth streets, and in the rear of Jap alley.

The fire must have been burning for a considerable time before it was discovered, for when the firemen reached the engine house the interior of the building was a veritable furnace. Unmindful of their own danger, the drivers of the hose wagon and engine dashed into the building and returned their hoses by driving them through the flames after hitching them to one engine and the hose wagon. The firemen's efforts to plunge into the flames to the instinct of their long training asserted itself, and when the going was out the noble animals ran to their places under the swinging har-ness and it took but an instant to anap the collars on and drive them out. A moment later a portion of the matter the building fell. The other engine, a magnificent machine, for which the city recently paid $500, was lost, together with the hose and ladder team, and nearly all the hose of the fire department.Then with their single engine the firemen tackled the fast spreading conflagration. It was even then beyond control, but despite the awful heat the firemen tried to check the progress of the flames and keep them out of the business section. An additional supply of hose was secured from Kern.Then the electric power was shut off and the water supply gave out almost entirely for lack of power for the engines. With their single engine the firemen tried their best but their efforts were unavailing. An appeal for help was sent to Fresno and the answer came that engines would soon be on the way.In a few minutes the entire row of brick buildings on Nineteenth street was ablaze including the fine three story Midland block. Leaping across Twentieth street the flames seized brick buildings and from there they attacked a row of frame buildings, all of which were totally destroyed. The heat was terrific and the flames quickly attacked the Windsor Hotel just across K street from the fire department.This was a frame building and from the fire attacked Riches opera house,

a brick building belonging to the Bank of Bakersfield and not used for several years. Both these were destroyed.From here the fire seriously menaced the large department store of Hochheimer & Company and the Conklin block on Chester avenue. The fire burned itself out by 4 o'clock and the request for Fresno engines was countermanded.A large part of the burnt district is in Chinatown. The entire block between Jap Alley, Twentieth, K and L streets except the engine house and a property immediately adjoining, which had just been purchased by the city for the new fire department, was owned by Choo Li, the richest Chinaman in the city. His loss is about $15,000, about one-third insured. The loss to Chinese merchants and restaurant keepers with small stocks will reach $5000. The loss in the Midland block is about $50,000, mostly insured. Charles Cohen loses about $15,000, with very little insurance.Gee Fong, a Chinaman who entered one of the buildings to rescue property was overcome by smoke and suffocated to death. Edward Baldwin, a musician who was lying in the Midland lodging house, jumped from the second story.
He will probably die from his injuries.The heaviest losers are W. H. Harrington of San Francisco, owner of the Midland block, $35,000, fully insured;
Choo Li, nearly all Chinatown, $15,000,
about one-third insured; City of Bakersfield, $10,000; R. McDonald and the Thibet estate, $4500, insurance $2500;
Bank of Bakersfield, Riches Opera house, $10,000, insurance about $5000;
Mrs. Samuel Haley, Midland lodging house, $300, no insurance; Charles Cohen $15,000, very light insurance;
Clemente Borel $5000, insurance $1500.Just before the recall was sounded, Col. Wagner, umpire, sustained the advance of the Blue army practically toward Gen. Bell's left wing. This would give the advantage to the Blue army on its face, but there are many points to be taken into consideration which may have a bearing on the re-sult. Besides this final movement, a battle

Twin City Picnic.

Among the vocalists to appear at the Twin City Society picnic at Playa del Rey tomorrow are Miss Viola Sobers, Mrs. O. B. Bachman, soprano; and Dr. C. W. Bachman, tenor.

Foshay Returnings.

Superintendent of Schools Foshay, who has been making a tour of the Eastern States and Europe for some time past, is on his way home, and is scheduled to arrive in town on this morning's Owl train.

Chew One Robbed.

Chew One, a Chinaman, reported to the police that he was held up on Tuesday night at First and Alameda streets, and robbed of $6 in money and his watch. He says his assailant was a Mexican but that was all he could say about it.

Empty Store Fired.

An unoccupied frame building at Second and Lucas streets was burned at 11:30 o'clock last night. The place was formerly used as a grocery store with living-rooms in the rear. The cause is unknown. The loss is about $1000.

Cash and Bag Gone.

Miss A. Guldie, who keeps a candy store at No. 804 Temple street, reported to the police yesterday that some sneak thief had entered her place and stole therefrom a cashbox containing $15. She could give no clue.

More Members.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday elected the following named to membership in the chamber: J. B. Bush, A. J. Richardson, A. G. Park, Albert Blake-Shoemaker Company, Fraternal Real Estate, Loan and Investment Company.

Apollo Rehearsal.

The final committee meetings of the Apollo Club's management have been held, and it has been decided to hold the first rehearsal of the organization next Monday evening at Temple Baptist Church, when the study of Handel's "Messiah" will be taken up.

Missionary Tea.

A missionary tea will be given in the First Presbyterian Church parlors this evening in honor of Mrs. H. Gilchrist, who will speak of her work among the Indians. Dr. Talmage will deliver an address and there will be special music. Mrs. Gilchrist will leave the city on Monday to return to her work among the Indians at North Fork.

Inquests Held.

Inquests were held at the morgue of Hresce Brothers yesterday on the bodies of Aneurin Jones and C. W. East. There were no new developments in either case. Aneurin Jones was the architect who fell dead in the Ramona Hotel, and East was a barber who fell from his bicycle while riding to the city from Santa Monica, having been a victim of valvular heart trouble.

Flinnham Gane.

Francisco Montana was arrested on East First street yesterday afternoon charged with working a flinnham game on a second hand clothing dealer. The arresting officer said Montana entered the store with a companion who made a pretense of purchasing jewelry, but while the proprietors' backs were turned Montana stole a pair of trousers and other wearing apparel.

Case of Alcoholism.

Coroner Trout yesterday held an inquest on the body of Michael Fisher, the barber found dead near Eagle Rock. The jury rendered a verdict of death by alcoholism. The funeral services were held at once at Pierce Brothers parlors, being largely attended by members of the Woodmen of the World and by the United Workmen, of which orders Fisher had been an active member.

Hurt in a Runaway.

Jesse Pette, a boy who drives a wagon for John H. Cummings, a plumber, was taken to the Receiving Hospital yesterday shortly after noon, suffering from a cut over one of his eyes and with a number of slight bruises. He collided with a car at Tenth and Broadway without seriously injuring himself, his horse or his wagon, but by a freak of fate knocked the car out of business by pretty near demolishing its outside works.

Ohio Society of California.

The Ohio Society of California will give a banquet upon the occasion of the commissioning of the battleship Ohio at the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco, about the 15th of this month. Herr Franz Adelmann, the celebrated musical director, will be present with his full orchestra. Richard A. San Francisco's celebrated tenor, will sing some of his latest popular songs. The officers of the battleship Ohio will be present, also many prominent and eloquent after-dinner speakers.

Epworth League Officers.

The Epworth League of the First Methodist Church elected as president Oscar Schurmer, vice-presidents, Mrs. J. D. Burch, Walter H. Fisher, Mrs. Stella Weaver, Mrs. Ralph Hamlin; secretary, Jay Timney; treasurer, John J. Rutherford. The officers will be installed at 6 o'clock on Sunday evening by the popular retiring president, Don Fallis. Reports were given at the meeting on Tuesday evening showing a membership in the league of 255, and a generally prosperous condition.

Humane Society's Big Month.

The work of the Los Angeles Humane Society for the month of August was greater than that of any equal period in its history. There were fifty-one complaints, fifty-one investigations, and eighty children involved. Of these, three were placed in the Pasadena Orphan's Home, three in private homes, two in the Detention home and one was turned over to the Juvenile Court. At the regular monthly meeting, held yesterday afternoon in the society's rooms in the Johnson building, many important matters were discussed.

Girl's Big Offer.

It is not often that a girl refuses $1000 for a half-hour's work, yet such was the case a week ago, when Nina David, formerly of this city, refused that amount to sing before one of the leaders of Newport society at a private entertainment. Miss David is known as a singer with a powerful voice, and since her departure from California has won laurels in the East. She has rigid contracts with New York managers for next winter's appearances, and these compelled her to refuse any concert offer which might have been made here.

The second annual picnic of the Independent Order of Foresters will be held at Redondo tomorrow. A lengthy programme of races and contests has been arranged. One of the aquatic features will be a series of swimming races. A tug of war on the beach is expected to draw the largest crowd. The biggest pull. There will also be an election, with polls open all day. The successful candidate is to get a gold watch. Dancing for the afternoon is announced, with free transportation to and from the Auditorium on electric cars. The Executive Committee is composed of E. T. Hughes, John C. Stedman, S. W. Van Domselaar,

George W. Hood, George F. Vaughan, Mrs. Laura Dacom, Mrs. Anna B. Small, Mrs. Nettie Peters, Mrs. Rosa J. Burns, Albert Wallace and J. B. Clark.

Kind of proud of ourselves. For we've done this Fall fabric problem up brown. And Dame Fashion has linked herself with us by declaring that the man who is not in a brown suit this fall will be "out of it."

The whole family of Browns are camped on our counters—hickory brown, nut brown, pale brown, chocolate brown, sea brown and just brown. Most of them are soft, sleek, easy to wear. Others are those wonderfully wonderful, lustrous browns. One of them, called with Brauer-Krohn tailoring—$35.00.
